APPLICANT DECLARATION

When hiring teachers, we select qualified individuals who exhibit exemplary attitude, ethics, and moral qualities as delineated in the Independent School Teacher Conduct and Competence Standards. Your vocation in our Catholic schools is witness to the CISPG Vision where “Parents, Pastors, and Staff collaborate to form a community where students are inspired to live the sacramental life, to grow in the moral life of virtue, and to thrive intellectually”.

CATHOLIC TEACHERS

Catholic teachers employed by CISPG will demonstrate at all times conduct and a way of life that are consistent with the Catholic Denominational Standards which include, but are not limited to:

- be a living witness of the Catholic faith through attending Sunday Mass, school liturgies and services, and living a single or married life according to the tenets of the Catholic Church
- be an active member of a parish
- be committed and capable of teaching the Diocesan-approved Religious Education Program
- be a Christian role model for others in the school, parish and community

NON-CATHOLIC TEACHERS

Non-Catholic teachers employed by CISPG will demonstrate at all times to the satisfaction of the employer, respect for the aims and nature of the school and its Catholic beliefs and practices which include, but are not limited to:

- living a single life or in a marriage recognized by the Church
- participate in the liturgical life of the school
- be a Christian role model for others in the school, parish and community

I have read and commit to the Applicant Declaration for: Catholic Teachers Non-Catholic Teachers

As well, I certify that the statements made by me in this application are true and complete to the best of my knowledge and beliefs and are made in good faith. I also understand that if any of these statements are untrue my appointment to a position may be terminated or rescinded at any point.
